

K-Love serves me locally by uplifting my spirits every morning while listening in my car on my way to work. I also have several friends in my community that are also very uplifted by K-Love's messages and music. There are no commercials and it is a great way to help the Christian faith be in constant listening view for everyone who is feeling the need to be uplifted. Thank you.